Plaintiffs,
16 vs.
17 FORD MOTOR COMPANY, a Delaware)
corporation, ,
18 Defendant.
19

20 1. Petitioner, Bertha Rios, has petitioned for court approval of a proposed 21 compromise of a disputed claim of a minor in this pending action.

22 2. A hearing was held on July 22 , 2010.

23 3. Petitioner is the parent and guardian ad litem of minor ER and resides with 24 the minor in the family home in Concord, California.

25 4. Claimant, ER, is a minor, current age 7, and was age 4 at the time of the 26 incident.

27 5. The claim of ER will compromise and resolve action number 3:09-CV09-
28 01884CW as to defendant Ford Motor Company.

1 6. The court determines that no notices of statutory liens are required as no
 2 medical expenses or other payments are owed by the minor.

3 7. The court orders that this petition be granted and the proposed compromise
 4 of this claim is approved. The gross amount or value of the settlement or judgment in 5 favor of claimant is $5,000. The payor, Ford Motor Company, shall disburse the proceeds
 6 of the settlement approved by this order as follows:

7 A payment of $5,000 payable to Wigington, Rumley & Dunn LLP trust
 8 account from which Wigington, Rumley & Dunn LLP's fees in the amount of $1,250 may 9 be deducted. The remaining balance of $3,750 shall be paid to the petitioner to be used
 10 without bond for the benefit of the minor.

11 8. The petitioner is authorized to execute settlement documents upon receipt of 12 the full amount of the settlement sum approved by this order and is authorized and directed
 13 to execute and deliver to the payor, Ford Motor Company, or its counsel, a full, complete
 14 and final release and discharge of any and all claims and demands of the claimant, ER, a 15 minor, by reason of the accident or incident described in the petition and the resultant
 16 injuries to the claimant as well as a stipulation to dismiss the action with prejudice.
 17 Furthermore, the petitioner is authorized and directed to execute any and all documents
 18 reasonably necessary to carry out the terms of the settlement.
